Jaisalmer - The Golden City

Popularly called as the "Golden City", Jaisalmer is one of the most famous destinations in the state of Rajasthan. Situated in the westernmost region of Rajasthan, the town is known for its location right in the middle of Thar Desert. Tourists love going out for a Desert Safari amidst the vast sand dunes of the desert. Jaisalmer stands mighty and proud and welcomes tourists from all over the world to get accustomed to her magical world of color, history and fable.

The history of Jaisalmer begins in 12th century and the place was named after its founder, Maharaja Jaisal Singh, a Rajput king. The fort he built guarded Jaisalmer for many years until the Muslims came when many Rajputs and Rajput princesses performed jauhar (tradition of voluntary death by burning). It was done by men to end their life with respect and Rajput Queens and female royals did it in order to avoid capture and falling in the hands of their enemies. Jaisalmer Fort, which had witnessed all these battles, still lies on the Meru Hill in the middle of Jaisalmer town.

All the houses in Jaisalmer are built from the yellow sandstone which gives the city a medieval atmosphere of a fairy tale.

Jaisalmer is famous for its Camel Safari through the desert and sand dunes.

Jaisalmer town has some renowned Havelis (mansions) built by the prosperous businessmen. No visit to Jaisalmer is complete without a visit to the elaborately carved Patwon Haveli. The entire last inch of the building is carved intricately. Five stories tall, it is divided into six apartments. Apparently, two of these are occupied by the Archaeological Society of India.
